HUMMINGBIRD
BY AMANDA BURTON

AMANDA'S WORK WILL BE FEATURED AT THE GALLERY
DURING THE MONTH OF MAY.

Amanda has a keen eye and has put that to good service in developing her skills as an award-winning photographer. Her love of nature (especially of birds!) shines through in her imagery. Always on the lookout for fresh ways to convey her artistic vision in color and composition, she continues to amaze us with her talent. Every year, hundreds of migrating hummingbirds find their way to her home in southern Illinois to feast on her generous supply of sugar water.

"Photography is my passion. Nothing I love more than grabbing my camera, taking a hike and capturing birds migrating through."
